MEASURES FOR RELIEF OF REFUGEES

Petition To H.K. Government

A petition will be sent to the Hong Kong Government asking it to allot a tract of land in the New Territories for refugees from Canton to do gardening work, as a relief measure for the large number of victims of Japanese bombings.

This decision was reached at a joint meeting of the local Chinese Y.W.C.A., Women's New Life Association and two other women's organisations last Wednesday.

It is expected that the land in question will provide work from 300 to 500 refugees.

A sum of $2,500 from the sale of flowers will be used as an initial fund for the scheme.

The meeting also decided to operate a workshop for refugees, says, Central News.

DETENTION OF MOTOR MAGNATE ON BOARD YACHT WAS PART OF SCHEME

Instructions In Threatening Note Contained Words "Will Shoot You"

London, June 9.

A SENSATIONAL STORY OF THE ALLEGED ATTEMPT to kidnap Viscount Nuffield, chairman of Morris Motors and well-known philanthropist, was told in the Oxford Police Court today when John Bruce Thornton appeared on remand charged with possession of firearms with intent to endanger life.

IT WILL BE RECALLED THAT THORNTON was arrested outside the Morris Works at Cowley during the night of May 24. He was met as he arrived at the factory by the police who were there by arrangement. Thornton was charged before a Special Court at the Oxford Police Station and was remanded.

At today's hearing, Mr. J. H. Farham appeared on behalf of the Director of Public Prosecutions.

"THIS CASE IS OF A RATHER UNUSUAL CHARACTER, involving a plot to kidnap Lord Nuffield and hold him for ransom," said Counsel in opening the case. "A scheme of this sort obviously could not be carried out single-handed and the accused sought the assistance of a Major Ramsden to carry it out."

Mr. Farham explained that the accused and Major Ramsden motored round England and in the course of these trips Thornton explained a scheme whereby Lord Nuffield would be compelled to write three letters, one to his secretary explaining his absence, one to the bank ordering a letter of credit in the name of Dr. Webb, and the third identifying Thornton as Dr. Webb, which would be taken to the bank.

The procedure would be, continued Counsel, for Major Ramsden to kidnap Lord Nuffield and hold him aboard a yacht while Thornton negotiated the letters of credit on the continent after which Lord Nuffield would be released.

METHOD OF APPROACH

Thornton, said Mr. Farham, intended to approach Lord Nuffield as an American journalist anxious for an interview as he was interested in hospital charities.

Major Ramsden informed the police and acted under their instructions while appearing to agree with all of Thornton's schemes. Lord Nuffield and his secretary were also informed.

LORD NUFFIELD

Thornton, according to Counsel for the prosecution, wanted to induce Lord Nuffield to show him the Wingfield Hospital this being the point when Lord Nuffield would be forced to enter a car, if necessary at pistol point.

ACCUSED'S DISGUISE

The accused intended to disguise himself with a red wig, false eyebrows, moustache and imitation gold fillings for his teeth.

It was alleged by the prosecution that Thornton asked Major Ramsden to type a threatening letter containing twelve instructions, one of which was: "I am packing two large calibre automatics and will shoot you through the guts if you attempt to raise an alarm or suspicious."

Another instruction was: "Walk out to the car and my chauffeur will do the rest. Do not on the way out attempt to make a run for it. This means instant death to you and anyone who attempts to interfere. I am a quick and accurate shot with the gun but do exactly what you have been told and you have nothing to fear. Make sure we are not followed by any of your folk. This will be fatal to you."

When Thornton was arrested by the police, he was found with one automatic strapped under his left arm. Another automatic was found in the car with a quantity of ammunition.

Replying to questions about the threatening letters, the accused declared that they were part of a film scenario he was writing.

FINAL VICTORY MUST LIE WITH CHINA — GENERALISSIMO CHIANG

Theatre Of War Will Shift To Hilly And Lake Areas, Unfavourable To Japanese

Hankow, June 9.

Confidence that final victory must lie with China was expressed by Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek in an interview with a group of foreign correspondents here today.

Touching on various phases of the situation the Generalissimo declared that the power of the Chinese army has been more than doubled since the outbreak of the war. In both numerical strength and fighting ability, its marked advance is now well known to all observers.

Along with this improvement in quantity and quality of China's fighting force is the national consciousness and oneness of purpose of the Chinese people, Generalissimo declared. At the same time, popular military knowledge has also shown remarkable advance. This in turn helped the authorities to map out unhampered their plans to the highest degree of military efficiency.

By experience gained during the first stages of the war, in which the Chinese Army had made

WAR WILL BE CONTINUED, EVEN IF HANKOW FALLS

Hankow, June 9.

Discussing the war situation, General Li told Reuter's correspondent that the Japanese used not think, even if they advanced to Hankow, that the capture of the city would mean victory. "Hankow is important to China, but if it falls, there are other routes available for obtaining supplies for the war which will be continued."

He asserted that Szechuen is ready to play her part in the struggle against aggression, the struggle for principles that are international and the struggle for China's own life.

He concluded by declaring that the Chinese people are united in their will to resist to the last foot of ground. (Reuter) gallant sacrifices in defending their positions, an indomitable spirit has been fostered which has proven a great asset for positional warfare, as fully demonstrated in the defence of Shanghai and later of south Shantung, he said.

In a large scale war, the Generalissimo pointed out, too much moment should not be attached to the gain or loss of a single city or place. On the other hand, it is of great importance for an army to force the initiative on the enemy in choosing fields of operation to its own advantage.

STRONGER HATRED

Referring to the wanton bombing by Japanese planes and the massacre of thousands of civilians, the Generalissimo firmly believed that instead of terrorizing the people into object submission, the mass slaughter will arouse even more strongly the hatred of China's 450,000,000 people and strengthen their determination to fight the enemy to the bitter end.

It can be confidently said that when the Chinese forces are shifted to new positions, the people's will to resist will be further strengthened, he said.

SEAFORTHS AND JAPANESE IN ARGUMENT

Shanghai, June 9.

Japanese and British troops were involved in an argument close to the Wing On department store in Nanking Road at 2 p.m., when a party of eight Japanese military police was stopped by a patrol of Seaforth Highlanders.

The Japanese were proceeding westward along Nanking Road through an area which is now regularly patrolled by groups of Seaforths since it forms part of the British defence sector. When they reached Wing On they were stopped by the Seaforths who refused to allow them to proceed any further into the British defence sector.

After an altercation lasting fifteen minutes in which the Seaforths and Japanese were joined by members of the Shanghai Municipal Police the Japanese finally withdrew marching back towards the Bund escorted by the Seaforths. (Reuter)

PREPARATIONS FOR 50,000 REFUGEES

Health Measures In Chungking

Chungking, June 9.

Accommodation for 50,000 refugees from Hankow has been prepared in Chungking and the surrounding districts of Lihung-kuan, the Mayor of Chungking told Reuter's correspondent today.

Eight areas have been set aside, he said, for the reception of the refugees in Chungking and Chiangpei, a neighbouring town across the Kialing River. Their accommodation has been made much easier by the action of many Szechuen natives who have evacuated these towns to reside

King's Birthday Parade Brilliant Stirring Spectacle

More spectacular, carried out on a larger scale, and with precision and attention to detail equalling if not exceeding previous years, the grand review at Happy Valley yesterday morning on the occasion of the King's Birthday proved to be a brilliant affair.

In this review, well over 2,000 officers and men of the fighting services and the Volunteers participated, and the March Past, when His Excellency the Governor, Sir Geoffrey Northcote, took the Salute, was stirring in the extreme.

His Excellency, accompanied by Captain S. H. Batty-Smith, A.D.C., arrived at Happy Valley almost on the stroke of eight, escorted by the motor-cycle section of the Hong Kong Volunteer Defence Corps.

As His Excellency left his car, the Union Jack was broken at the masthead, the Parade was called to attention and the Royal Salute given.

His Excellency then inspected the Parade which had been drawn up some 15 minutes earlier and of which Colonel G. C. Gowlan was in command accompanied by Col. N. M. S. Irwin and Major F. Benoy. Lt.-Col. O. H. Tidbury, O.C. the Middlesex Regiment, had drawn up the parade.

Sir Geoffrey then took his position on the Saluting Base, accompanied by Commodore E. B. C. Dickson, Group-Captain A. H. Peck, Lt.-Col. R. R. Helbert, Lt.-Col. R. C. B. Anderson, Comdr. J. Petrie, the A.D.C., and other officers. Colonel Gowlan, after he had led the March Past, also took his place with the group of officers behind His Excellency.

MARCHING ORDER

As the column moved into position for the march past, the massed bands under the command of Bandmaster H. Jordan moved smartly forward towards the Saluting Base and played as the units marched in the following order: Royal Navy, Royal Marines, Hong Kong Naval Volunteer Force, 8th Heavy Brigade, R.A., 5th A.A. Brigade, R.A., Hong Kong Brigade, H.K.S.R.A., Royal Engineers, 2nd Bn. Royal Scots 1st Bn. Middlesex Regiment, 5/6 Rajputana Rifles, 1st Bn. Kumaon Rifles, Royal Air Force, and Hong Kong Volunteer Defence Corps.

The arrangements, well planned in advance, were excellent and spectators, officials and the general public alike suffered no inconvenience of any kind.

The whole review went according to schedule, taking exactly the one hour calculated for.

In brilliant weather, the Garden Party at Government House in the afternoon, at which His Excellency and Lady Northcote received hundreds of guests, brought to a fitting climax the series of official functions in which His Excellency had participated during the course of the day.

Members of the Consular Body and the Legislative and Executive Councils, Government officials, heads of departments, military and naval officers, and hundreds of others representative of all sections of the community, attended the reception.

Earlier in the afternoon, His Excellency gave a reception to the Consular Body and, with Lady Northcote, were guests at lunch of the Chairman and Committee of the Hong Kong Club.

DORSETSHIRE MURDER HEARING CONTINUES Naval Surgeon Tells How Man Was Killed

Seaman Harris yesterday gave evidence in the case in which Edwin Moreland Dwyer, 19-year-old Able Seaman serving on board H.M.S. Dorsetshire, is charged with the murder of his shipmate, Leading Seaman Dickinson.

The case was continued before Mr. Butters at the Central Court, Mr. John Whyatt, Crown Counsel, conducting the prosecution and Mr. G. S. Hugh-Jones appearing for the defence.

Seaman Harris stated that when Dwyer was detailed by Dickinson to dry the deck, a job which was usually performed by "boys" or ordinary seamen, Dwyer was heard to say: "He treats me like a dog, I'll get him for it!"

Harris continued to say that after he had heard the shot he was relieved by Dwyer, who remarked to him: "They are running around below like a lot of pregnant prostitutes."

NORMAL SURPRISE

Leading Signaller F. E. Nicholson, who was also on middle watch on May 2 stated he also heard the report. He went to a wooden platform to see what was happening but could see nothing. He was later ordered to go below to take down the names of any person found in the vicinity.

Dwyer came up to him as he was going to the port side of the upper bridge. When asked, he informed Dwyer of what had happened and Dwyer expressed normal surprise and appeared to want to know more about the incident.

"He said he was not sorry that it was Dickinson, as Dickinson was the one man on the ship that he disliked most," witnessed stated.

CHINESE CREW

Petty Officer W. Haines testified that he saw Dickinson lying dead on a cushion. He was called to look for Dwyer. He first saw him acting as port lookout on the upper bridge, but later when he returned Dwyer was not there as he had been relieved. He eventually found Dwyer near the "B" gun deck. Dwyer was carrying an overcoat. He then directed Dwyer to see the Commander.

Ng Pak-wan, No. 1 of the Chinese crew, gave evidence to the effect that all the members of the Chinese crew were lined up for identification. Dwyer picked out Ah Foy, the Captain's cook, as the man whom Dwyer claimed to have seen shortly after the shooting.

CAME FROM BOOMS

Surgeon Lieutenant Northcote, M.R.C.S., L.R.C.P., said he was called out about 1.30 a.m., and as he reached the upper deck port-side abreast the galley, he saw a man lying on a cushion with his legs more or less stretched out and his arms crossed in front.

There was an enormous stream of blood coming down from beneath the face. He discovered that there was a wound half an inch in diameter, one inch in front and below the right ear. After examination he found that treatment would revive the man and, proceeding to make further investigation, he found a large wound on the left side of the skull. The bullet had passed through the brain, and pieces of skull were found inside the stuffing of the pillow on which Dickinson was lying.

CAUSE FROM BOOMS

He traced the course of the bullet and deduced that it had come from the "booms." As a result of a post-mortem, he believed the bullet was fired from a high velocity weapon which was held at least four feet away.

Detective Inspector A. L. Hopkins gave expert evidence regarding the bullet which was found in the pillow and two live rounds of ammunition. He stated that they were .303 service rifle cartridges.

After formal evidence was given the case was adjourned till 2.30 p.m. today.

NOTTS WELL BEATEN

Fine Bowling By
Sims

Nottinghamshire collapsed badly when they followed on at Lord's recently, and in spite of a shower of rain which interrupted the play for 20 minutes the match was all over in the early afternoon. Middlesex won with an innings and 51 runs to spare, says The Times.

It was probably a combination of the follow-on and the growing trickery of the pitch that accounted for Nottinghamshire's battling failure in their second innings. For most of the previous day they had put up a stout fight after a disconcerting start and got to within 34 runs of comparative safety.

If the last few batsmen could have resisted hitting out and stuck to defence on the previous evening Nottinghamshire might well not have had to open a second innings, 183 runs behind, on a pitch enlivened and disturbed by the fall of rain.

However, that aspect of the game belonged to the night-havens, like Edrich's 1,000th runs. As before, the Middlesex fast bowlers started Nottinghamshire on the downward track, and this time Sims's slow spinners were enough to finish them off.

Again Hardstaff was a glorious exception on the beaten side, for if he could not make another century that was largely the fault of his fellows. At least he remained not out for 52 out of a total of 132.

QUICK WICKETS

It was bad enough on the previous day when three of the best Notts wickets fell for 58 runs. Now the same three went down for seven. Both G. O. Allen and Smith were getting lift as well as pace from the pitch, and first Harris was caught in the gully before he had scored, and then Knowles was out in a rather more complicated manner also without scoring.

Meanwhile Keeton had made a hit to the boundary off Smith, but he only scored one more run before he, too, was caught in the slips.

GENERAL HATA MAY BE REPLACED

Shanghai, June 9.

The recent reshuffle of the Konoze Cabinet in Tokyo will involve the replacement of General Shunroku Hata as commander-in-chief of Japanese troops in this area, although a successor has not yet been named, according to Chinese sources here.

Reports from Tokyo state that the War Minister, General Seishiro Itagaki, is worried by the fact that although Japanese troops took Hsuehchow, Lanfeng and Kaifeng, the Chinese military strength has remained practically intact.

To liquidate the war as soon as possible, the War Minister has recommended that his predecessor, General Hajime Sugiyama, replace General Count Hasegawa Terauchi, as commander-in-chief of Japanese troops in north China.

It is also reported that in the event of General Terauchi being retained in his command, General Sugiyama may be appointed to a high staff post in China, which he visited only a month ago.—(International).

In his case by Edrich direct off Smith's bowling.

Then the successes of the fast bowlers came to an end, but they had already done much to win the match before Sims got to work and skittled out the rest of the side. Allen's opening spell of bowling consisted of seven overs in the course of which he took two wickets for nine runs. He was not out for 52 out of a total of 132.

Winrow soon was leg-before-wicket to Sims and Staples, caught in the slips, and G. F. Henne, well drawn out of his crease and stumped, fell at the same total of 36.

At this stage Sims had taken three wickets for eight runs. A shower fell while Voce was batting, and directly after play was resumed Sims bowled him and Larwood in quick succession.

Eight wickets then were down for 56, and it was only the last despairing efforts of the last two batsmen in support of Hardstaff that kept the match alive until half an hour or so after luncheon.

Air Defence Loan To China Is Mooted

BRITISH PEOPLE
URGED TO MAKE IT A REALITY

London, June 9.

That the people of Great Britain should demand that the Government should its condemnation of Japan by a guaranteed loan to China is suggested by the Daily Herald, which declares that, although civilised people are horrified by the bestial bombing of civilians in Canton, diplomatic protests alone are useless.

The loan proposed, says the paper, would provide the Chinese with funds to defend their cities against air attacks.

"Plans for such a loan already exist," the Daily Herald says. "They are at this moment under consideration by the Foreign Office and Treasury."

"There must be no further delay. Public opinion must force the Government to sanction it immediately."

The paper adds that men and women can also play a direct part in influencing Japan by an intensification of the boycott of Japanese goods.—(Reuters).

JOINT ACTION FAVOURED

Hankow, June 9.

The New York Times is in favour of joint American, British and French action in checking the promiscuous bombings in Canton and Spain, according to an Associated Press dispatch received here.

Commenting upon the British proposal that the United States, Great Britain, Norway and Sweden should jointly determine the bombing in Spain, the New York Times stated that such enquiry is of little value unless similar findings should be applied to China.

The paper believes that the first four named countries should undertake the enquiry regardless of what cities were bombed.—(International).

CONFIDE IN FAITH PRIOR

"LOTTIE" is in love with her husband, but she would like a moment to herself now and then. She writes: "We have been married five years. There are no children. We were married soon after I graduated from school and neither of us ever had much interest in anyone else."

"Now, I love my husband, dearly. He is the soul of kindness, and considerate and always even tempered. He hasn't any bad habits and takes great care of his health. There aren't any discussions about money matters because I handle all the accounts and pay the bills, and keep a strict budget."

"I should be absolutely happy, and content. But frankly I'M BORED TO DEATH. And the more I blame myself, the more I'm bored. I'm thoroughly ashamed, and never let him see it, but there it is."

"We eat the same meals in the same dining room three times a day. Once a week we go to the same picture theatre. We live in the same place of course and even haven't twin beds. We never have any company, and rarely go to anyone's house. He is perfectly contented to sit down in the living room, take the newspaper in his hand and doze off, almost immediately after dinner."

"He is intelligent, and a good business man and everything, but if something doesn't happen soon, I think I'll go stark staring mad!"

"What do you think of it?"

MY DEAR "LOTTIE": I think you had better take a holiday alone, and soon! Probably your husband, kindly soul that he is, will say "yes dear" without a struggle, but even if he doesn't, the argument will help to break the monotony. But at any rate GO.

Choose a destination you think will amuse you, buy a few smart clothes and GO. Stay until you commence to worry about your husband and how things are getting along at home, but do not go back until you cannot bear to stay away any longer.

When you return commence to go out several times a week, see that your husband spends a regular evening out of the house with friends of his. Join some clubs and do a little entertaining.

Do not depend on your husband to furnish all the mental stimulus and interest from now on. Maybe he's as bored as you are but more long suffering.

BUSINESS AND PLEASURE
"PERPLEXED" is in a quandary, she does not wish to offend or accept the invitations of an office colleague.

(Each week in this column, Faith Prior answers questions of a personal nature submitted by readers of the Daily Press.)

"I have been working for over a year in a business office," she writes. "Several months ago a young man joined our office force. He has been very kind and appears interested in me."

"Last week he invited me to dinner and the pictures. I did not go; since then, he has again asked me to go out with him. What shall I do? I do not particularly care for this man, but do not wish to offend him."

DEAR "PERPLEXED": The situation in which you find yourself is not uncommon. By all means maintain the same attitude toward this young man as in the past.

When he asks you again for an engagement, politely and with good grace refuse, and explain that the manager of your office does not condone members of the staff mixing socially.

This is frequently the case in certain organizations, especially where the two parties, work side by side each day. You will still have a business friend and no feelings trampled upon.

DIPSOMANIAC
"NO SENSE IN IT"—a young girl in love with a young man who over enjoys his drinking, and she does not understand.

You were wise to write that letter, as unhappily, you describe a dipsomaniac. He does not drink for the exhilaration, amusement, jollity or any ordinary reason for drinking, but does so until he reaches oblivion. This trouble of his is a mental rather than a moral one.

You should realise for your own sake, that you have not the power to "save him from himself by marrying him. He may possibly stop himself on the dangerous slide he is on, but you could not do it for him. No woman has ever truly reformed a man."

FAMILY OBJECTS
"ARDENT" is in love with a 17-year-old girl, wants to marry, and decides the girl's family is the obstacle in his pathway.

Dear "Ardent": You have not known the girl long enough to be admitted into the family, even as a prospective husband, however far this may be in the future.

You must realise that the mother of a girl of 17, both inexperienced and romantic, is justifiably afraid of giving her too much latitude.

It would be wise for you to respect the wishes of the family. A manly visit would perhaps help you, if you explained that you have no foolish notions about the girl, would like to take her out only occasionally, and would protect her utterly.

You should restrain your romantic and emotional feelings, and try to honour the friendship.

Talking Of Flowers—Drop A Hint To The Men

COME ALONG and go window and store shopping. It is an effort for some of us, but it is well worth while when you find the new and unusual garment or gadget. We all like to be different and one step ahead of our sisters."

Have you seen the unique crosses in gold or silver, suspended by a link chain? Wearing one of these with the untrimmed or severely tailored dinner or evening gown is most effective.

For newness, a prize of a dinner dress made of lacquered organdie, candy stripe background of red and white with white embroidered flowers. The cut is with the circular skirt and gathered bodice, low V neck and same in the back. This dress besides being made of a new material, is very chic and cool in appearance.

Tying in with the dressy and formal occasion is the question of flowers. Why not make the men more flower-minded? They will not read this, but do call their attention to the fact.

A florist here can do wonders in flower combination for a corsage. Flowers to compliment your dinner or formal gown. Too, your crepes, linens or sharkskins will be dressed up with a small corsage of garden type posies.

Flowers make you smile, they give you a lift in spirits, all of us. It is a bit of an extravagance but pays good dividends. Why shouldn't a lovely costume be completed in perfection with a corsage and it isn't terribly expensive.

That New Hat

AH! HAVE you seen that new hat in town? The one with the upside-down saucer brim, quite wide. It gives a good eye protection; the crown, which is half opened, is formed by a wide band of material which slips under the brim in back and knotted.

Very flattering, and ideal for the weather we are having. When you see it you want to try it on, then you must possess it; and sold, you own a new hat.

Vells are everywhere on hats. One shop we found with about a dozen hats having trick, sassy, seductive vells, using them as crown trims, bows, face and eye vells. You can almost have a new personality when you invest in a hat and veil combination.

Now from the top of your head to the tip of your toes! Shoes, and practically everyone is a shoe fiend. A very good assortment is offered in one of the larger shops.

Beach shoes in colours, rubber throughout having cotton laces and small heel. Inexpensive and very necessary, particularly if you are a "Repulse Bay swimmer." Those rocks and stones out there play havoc with bare feet.

Trim And Cool

WHEN YOU must walk these days you want your feet trim in appearance and cool, too. In this same shop, sandals, opened toes and backless, perforated and open sides, can be found in whites and white and pastel combinations. These sandals and sport shoes are British and American manufactured.

The evening slippers are here in a fairly wide selection. Of course, there are the white satin and crepe sandals which can be dyed to correspond or contrast your gown.

Your Feet Should Be As Bright As The Flowers

EVERYTHING is on the up and up, even to shoes. First, the colour, then down to the very sole. Shoes are bright. They have individuality. Use them to step up the pace of your clothes, to enhance the beauty of tantalising summer frocks, and to lend charm to glorious picture hats. They deserve recognition, and now is your moment to have your trim ankles and cleverly shod feet take the spotlight. Everyone, is watching the foot parade go by.

Don't be so staid as to think a blue outfit can be worn with blue shoes only. Put some spirit and colour into your costume. Try rosy ones, paprika, spice, blonde leather and mesh. Try the bright shoes with beige, too. And for heaven's sakes go in for colour in a BIG way when you get your sports clothes together.

One of the MOST important things in the Colony this summer should be amusing sports shoes. There are the wide sole cork beach sandals. Sandals of hand woven fabrics. Sandals with hand embroidery of wool. Sandals of raffia in bright colours. Some with wooden soles and many with cork bottoms.

Wedge shape soles will attract attention to your feet (And if they are good looking, more power to you!) when you wear semi-sports clothes, and everyone will know you're well dressed. They are

Air-Cooled As The Bank

PRINTED linen shoes, together with bags and scarves of the same material, make the accessory picture more interesting and highlight the solid colour of summer frocks. We have even seen a striped pique pump in town which made us think "I want one too."

The new "Wicker Mesh," soft and firm, and almost as air-cooled as the Hong Kong and Shanghai Bank Building, is the rage in New York City. Just the shoe for our hot and sticky days when you want to look delfly shod and your foot stages a quiet mutiny at the thought of solid leather.

It moulds your foot like a fine stocking or glove. This shoe can be made or bought in black, navy, white or any colour you desire, and it has a contrasting suede trim.

A Hong Kong delight should be the open toes and bare backs. It seems that no foot can lead a private life this season. It must bare at least the tip of the toe or a lovely heel line.

This idea can be carried out in stunning heelless oxfords giving the diminutive look, or in pumps and sandals, minus toes. These styles can be worn for street and dress occasions—and are they comfortable!

When the lights go on, evening time, you go up in the air on three inch heels or stay in the shadows on none at all.

foeless and Backless

The draped opera, which is soft and fashioned of exquisite chiffon kidskin, is toeless and backless, and has a jewelled buckle as fastening on the side.

You could dance in these until two a.m. and still wish the ball was not over.

Another evening slipper which hangs to your heel by a narrow strap, except for two strips of pleated kid in contrasting colours draped across the vamp, will be one more of your pets when tripping the light fantastic.

If you want to be very fancy, a three inch heel, backless sandal with sprays of multi-coloured flowers embroidered on a sea-foam-green ground and tied in two lovers' knots across the vamp would be very trick indeed.

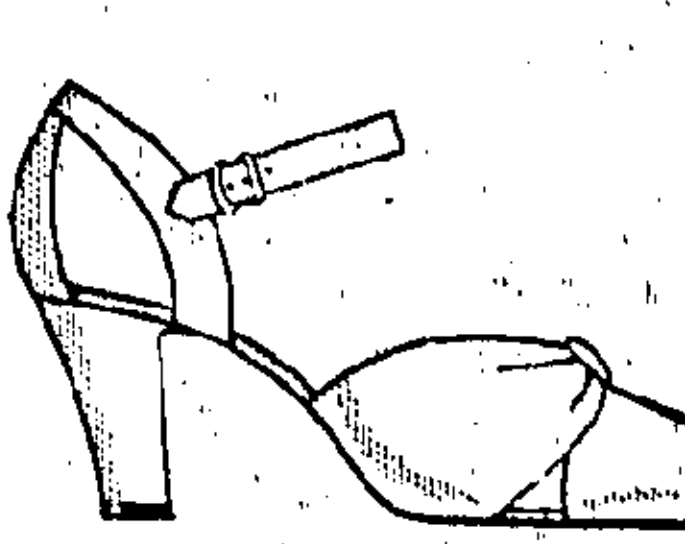

If you are tall and your escorts are small, try the heelless ballet style slipper. Contrasting or matching colours with your gown, and the same idea, if you want to go so far, in the criss-cross ribbon angle-laces.

Shoes' First Cousin

The first cousin to shoes is hosiery; and the stockings must have their say. We prefer them hot and sticky weather as they form a protection for the inside of our shoes and also absorb the perspiration. Without them you have the feeling that the soles of your feet are glued to your shoes.

Hosiery is keeping right in step with a few new shades for the summer. There's the modest

Silver Threads Among The Gold: Milady's Latest Hair Notion

IT'S news. It's going up: the hairline. It's chic and interesting—but very face-revealing.

All of your neck and face is in the spotlight; no concealing bangs, curls, or waves.

Does your skin stand up to this direct scrutiny? If not, don't give up; do something about it as the on-the-up coiffures are far too attractive to pass up.

Start to work. Don't brush your hair down to suit your face; tone up your face to suit your new hair arrangement. It will not be a big job. Your skin probably looks tired and sallow, lacks freshness and clarity; maybe there are small spots or blemishes on forehead and chin.

Remember, it has been through a hectic winter and wants cleaning, not superficially, but deep down inside the pores. Cleansing for freshness, and massage to stimulate the circulation, give you that sparkling expression.

Toning Treatment
Helena Rubenstein's Oxylation Treatment is ideal for the above-mentioned condition. Its extraordinary thorough cleansing and toning treatment of which "Oxylation" is the main step.

First, cleanse your face, neck and shoulders with a good cleanser cream, which should be applied with long sweeping upward movements that not only remove dust and stale makeup, but relax the nerves as well.

After cleansing, "Oxylation." By special process, oxygen and herbal lotion mixed together are sprayed into the skin. Penetrating deep into the pores, they wash away all dust and deep-seated impurities which ordinary cleansing does not do.

The action of the oxygen is re-vivifying, bleaching and brightening. The spray is cooling and toning to your face.

LEMON CREAM
LEMON has a slightly drying as well as bleaching action on the skin, and those with very dry skins should beware of using too much lemon in their beauty preparations. A lemon hand cream, however, is good for the hands, and a lemon cleansing cream is excellent for the greasy skin.

FRUIT FOR BEAUTY
If you want to be beautiful and healthy—and true beauty is impossible without health—then you must not neglect the fruits. Oranges and lemons are especially helpful. Oranges are excellent for the complexion.

Here is an excellent drink to keep you in good condition: At night put a handful of raisins into a glass, and squeeze over them the juice of one or two oranges. Leave it to stand all night, and drink it up as soon as you wake in the morning.

Orange juice is also useful for outward application. Apply to the skin with a wad of cotton wool. This acts as a mild tonic and has a valuable action on the complexion.

Lemon juice has a wonderfully bleaching effect. It will whiten discoloured skin, remove stains from the fingers, brighten the hair, if used in the last rinsing water, and strengthen the gums.

Don't forget—somebody said—"Your legs and feet can be your fortune." Take care of them.

BOY STOWAWAYS' PLEA SUCCEEDS

SENT BACK TO U.S.
After hearing an appeal by an American boy whom they had sentenced to four weeks' imprisonment, the Southampton magistrates revised their decision and ordered him to be sent back home. He is Augustus Herbert Elms, 17, who pleaded guilty to stowing away in the liner Queen Mary at New York.

"I am a 'star' Boy Scout in America," he said, "and I saved two persons' lives. I wonder would that help you to send me home, please? I have never been in trouble before."

A YANK AT OXFORD

"A Yank at Oxford," now playing at the King's Theatre, the first of the M.G.M. British-made productions, presents Robert Taylor in his most thoroughly satisfying role to date.
A he-man, athletic characterization on the part of Taylor, rounded and convincing performances by Lionel Barrymore and Maureen O'Sullivan and fine contributions by a group of outstanding British players, make the film memorable.
Particularly to be noted are Vivien Leigh as the "other girl," Griffith Jones as Taylor's undergraduate enemy, Edmund Gwenn as the Oxford Dean, C. V. France as the tutor, and Edward Rigby as Taylor's "scout."

ADVENTUROUS FRANCE

Special Stamp To Commemorate Royal Visit

The gay and successful freedom with which other countries add new issues to their postage stamps is illustrated by the announcement that there is to be a special stamp in France to commemorate the visit of our King and Queen to Paris this month.

With the exception of such affairs as an international postal conference in London or an Empire Exhibition at Wembley, it needs a new reign in order to extract a new stamp from the cautious authorities of Britain.

Even then it takes months to produce and there are questions in Parliament and reports of consultations with wise men and learned societies; and then, as often as not, the ultimate result is heartily condemned by quite a number of experts who ought to know something about design and printing.

But in France a royal visit from the Sovereign of another country is sufficient excuse, and no doubt the new stamp will emerge without delay and be received without protest.

Why our procedure should be so cumbersome and controversial is one of life's later mysteries. Granted that one side of a postage stamp is nothing if it is not adhesive; but why should the "stickiness" (in Britain) extend to the whole subject of new issues and varied designs?

This is a region where the aptitude for adventure wholly deserts the representatives of the bulldog breed. — (Manchester Guardian).

Mosquito More Dangerous Than The Tiger

"The mosquito is more dangerous than the tiger!" An apparent paradox and yet a profound truth!
Those who have an intimate knowledge of the tropics will be quite ready to endorse this. Governments in tropical countries are also fully aware of this truth and strive by speech and the printed word to impress upon the inhabitants the necessity of defending themselves against mosquitoes.
Thus, in Siam, for example, a leaflet is distributed depicting a tiger and a malaria-carrying mosquito, with the remark: "Mosquitoes are millions of times more dangerous than tigers." In Siam, tigers devour 50 people each year and mosquitoes kill 50,000.

In Roumania, a European country where malaria abounds, the Government distributes a leaflet in which it emphasises the economic side of the struggle against malaria. A workman, thin and ill, sitting against a hay-cock, is surrounded by a swarm of mosquitoes, whilst another peasant who has taken quinine is quietly getting on with his work.

A country whose population suffers from malaria is economically much weaker than one with a healthy population. In British India, the number of subjects attacked by malaria every year reaches 100,000,000, and it is reckoned that on account of this disease the British administration loses about £80,000,000 every year.

For countries infested with malaria, the short quinine treatment is an invaluable help. Former methods, which consisted of taking quinine over a period of months, have completely given away to the short quinine treatment, thanks to which the worker is able to continue his work uninterrupted.

This method of treatment, recommended by the Malaria Commission of the League of Nations, consists of taking 15-20 grains of quinine daily during five to seven days, the treatment being repeated should there be a relapse.
For prophylaxis the Commission recommends a daily dose of 6 grains during the whole malarial season.

A special Cabinet meeting is being summoned today to hear a report by the Premier, Dr. Hodza, on the Memorandum submitted by the Sudeten German Party dealing with the demands formulated by Herr Konrad Henlein in his Karlsbad speech.

Damascus, June 9.
The Syrian Government yesterday handed the French High Commissioner, M. De Martel, a memorandum for dispatch to the French Government and the Secretariat of the League of Nations.

The Syrian Government in this memorandum asks France to state clearly whether she intends to respect the provisions of the Franco-Syrian Treaty and, at the same time, protests emphatically against the Franco-Turkish Agreement whereby the Sanjak is to be taken from Syria and handed over to Turkey.

The Syrian Government calls upon France to respect and defend the rights of her mandate and ward in Syria.

According to statements in political circles, the intention of the Syrian Government, in the event of an unsatisfactory reply being received from France, is to resign and decline all responsibilities for further consequences arising from the present state of affairs in the Sanjak.

NAZI INDEX

The German "Index Expurgatorius" has just been published, of Jewish musicians—or musicians alleged to be Jewish—throughout the ages, writes a Home correspondent.

It is an astonishing book, and includes almost every famous violinist, living and dead. Among composers Mendelssohn figures, of course—not a note of his music is allowed to be played in Germany recently—but Meyerbeer, also unquestionably a Jew, does not. It is still more surprising to find the name of Adeline Patti.

TO SEEK REDRESS

Among the tenors there is Lauritz Melchior, who sang in London in "The Ring" recently. "I am a Dane, without a drop of Jewish blood in me," Herr Melchior told me, "and I am determined to seek redress."

To be mentioned in the book means no employment in Germany.

SINGLETON GOES TO REPTON

A. P. Singleton, last year's Oxford captain, who assisted Worcestershire against the Australians recently, has been appointed to the staff at Repton School. M. Paris, June 9.

Sir Eric Phipps, British Ambassador in Paris, had a further interview with M. Georges Bonnet, French Foreign Minister, yesterday.

The French Government is said to be still waiting for an affirmative American reply to the British proposals.—(Transocean).

COWES YARDS ACTIVE

Yachts Fitting Out For Season

MANY NEW CRAFT ON BUILDING SLIPS

Considerable activity is taking place now in the yacht and boatbuilding yards at Cowes. Yachts are being fitted out and the construction of new vessels is being accelerated in anticipation of another successful yachting season, writes a Home correspondent.

Already a number of vessels have been prepared and launched, but many more will follow.

At George Marvin's yards Sir Walter Preston's s.y. Loma is on the slip where she is being fitted out. Mr. F. M. Singer's s.y. Xarifa has left her mud berth and is lying in the River Medina, where work of getting her into commission will proceed.

Sir Philip Hurdocks's sch. Vera Mary has already been launched and is lying in the river receiving attention, and Mr. E. M. Crankshaw's 12-metre Noreen has already been out cruising several times. The yawl Octavia, which has been sold by Mr. Eustace Blundell, and Capt. A. Fitzgerald's ketch Best Friend will shortly go into commission.

At W. White and Son's, Mr. R. Steele's m.y. Lahloo was launched recently, and the 8 metre Saskia, belonging to Mr. Steele and Mr. K. H. Preston, has been fitted out and is ready for racing season.

Others being got ready for racing are three West Solent Restricted Class yachts—Mr. O. B. Trinder's Niola, Miss Olive Chetwynd's Squirrel, and Cmdr. J. Bird's Harkaway. Work is also proceeding on Mr. G. C. Hans Hamilton's cutter Narcissus, and Mr. C. Grassmann's ketch Gieorgour has already been launched.

At Uffa Fox's Yard several 14ft International dinghies are being built. One is for Mr. Stewart Morris, who has won the Prince of Wales's Cup on several occasions and who races successfully in many classes; another is for Mr. Peter Scott, the artist son of the famous Polar explorer, and Mr. John Winter, both winners of the Prince of Wales's Cup; a third is for Mr. Ivor Williams, who races at Exmouth.

FOR RACES IN U.S.

Three new 30 square metre yachts are also being constructed. They are for Mr. G. Wansborough, Col., and Mrs. H. S. Richardson, and Mr. W. Janson. The first two boats, together with their owners, are going to America to race against boats representing that country in a series of international races during the latter half of August.

Mr. Colin Ratsey's six-metre Theomopylae is having new keel bolts and is being re-rigged for racing in her class, and Mr. T. C. Ratsey's cutter Evenlode was refitted and launched recently.

At E. W. F. Williams's Sunbeam Yard fitting work is in progress on Comdr. Selverwright's cutter Flamingo, Dr. I. L. Tuckett's sloop Britt, Col. A. C. Robinson's cutter Christando, Mr. J. Eskdale Fishburn's m.c. Nigella. An 18ft 6in centre-board one-design for Mr. H. F. Longmore has just been handed over to the owner, as has a similar craft for the Solent Yacht Club.

At the boatbuilding department of J. Samuel White and Co., Crown Prince Michael's express yacht, the design of which was also entrusted to the firm, is being built. It is to be presented to him by the city of Bucharest. The new yacht will be of wood construction, 54ft in length, and powered with twin-screw petrol engines to give a speed of about 20 knots. A 18ft dinghy is also being built for Sir Walter R. Preston's s.y. Loma.

CABIN CRUISERS

At Saunders' Shipyard at East Cowes a 42ft twin-screw cabin cruiser for Mr. H. L. Barber, of Torquay, is nearing completion and will be delivered on May 28. Two stock 45ft twin-screw cabin cruisers have been completed and are ready for early delivery.

Mr. H. Kershaw's m.y. Medina has undergone her annual refit and is ready for launching. The firm have also recently delivered a 42ft twin-screw day cruiser to Lord Ebbisham, and an order for a 27ft launch for Col. John Grettton has just been received.

At Lallow's Yard Mr. G. Pearson's ketch Karl II. has been fitted out and has gone to Newhaven. Mr. J. C. W. Darnley's sloop Loretta was launched, but owing to the change in the weather has been turned to a mud berth.

JESSIE ANDERSON WINS PRIZE

Brilliant Round Of 74

The Vesta Golfing Society, founded a year ago to give a welcome and a course of their own to Overseas women golfers visiting Britain, held its first annual meeting recently at Hadley.

Representatives of Northern Nigeria, New Zealand, Australia, South Africa and Singapore were among the competitors, special prizes being given for these Overseas golfers.

Others were open to members of the Society resident in Britain, and Miss Jessie Anderson, the present amateur champion, won the scratch, with a brilliant round of 74, which equals the par of the course.

She was out in 37, made her one mistake of the round at the 10th, with a drive hunkered, and an overbold pitch, but picked up the dropped shot by pitching to within a few feet of the 11th and so getting a birdie 3.

At the short 13th her tee shot was five yards from the pin; at the 15th, which measures 296 yards she drove to within five and twenty yards of the hole, and running up dead had another birdie 3.

At the 17th she put the tee shot five yards from the hole again, and after bunkering her second beside the 18th green, recovered finely and got her 4 to be home in 37, round in 74.

The R.A.M.C. will hold a dance at the Hotel Cecil tomorrow at 8.30 p.m.

Work is under way on Mr. E. Delmar-Morgan's cutter Grey Friar, Mr. J. A. C. Gausson's sloop Red Angel, Dr. J. Burnford's cutter Mald Marion, Sir Henry McMahon's sloop Mayfly, the cutter Leo, owned by Mr. R. Casson and Mr. E. Turpin, Mr. Denton's cutter Mary Rose, and Mr. H. Trevels's sloop Arnyne.

Col. A. O. L. Kindersley's schooner, which he has recently purchased, is to be hauled up for fitting out, and Mr. C. Reynolds's m.c. Nymph is ready for launching.

PRAISE TO ENGLISH 70-YEAR-OLD YOUNGSTERS

The Duke of Kent praised England's "capable youngsters of 65 to 75" in a speech at Blackpool recently. He was speaking of "youth" and said:

"Each year I come into contact with a very great number of people, and a very great number of activities. I am continually surprised at the variety of opinion which exists about the question of youth. At some places I find young men and women in charge, who are being conspicuously successful. At other places I find but a few young people employed, with very little hope of advancement until they are nearing middle age."

"I have come to the conclusion that this diversity is due to a very remarkable characteristic of our nation. As a people we reach our optimum period at any age from 18 to 75."

"I think there is no country where one can find such capable youngsters of 65 to 75 as in England, and I am sure that few nations have been able to produce

CHINA'S YOUTH RESPONDS

BASED on ideals of self-sacrifice and community service, the Boy Scout Movement has always been regarded with respect and admiration as an outstanding power for good in this world.

A proud record indeed is provided by the countless acts of heroism performed by the youthful members of this organisation, whose influence extends to the most remote corners of the earth.

No body will ever know the full extent of the services rendered by the Boy Scouts, as they carry out their self-appointed duties in an unassuming fashion, seeking none of the limelight.

In keeping with the proud traditions of the Movement has been the behaviour of the Chinese Boy Scouts in Canton during the past terrifying days.

Regardless of danger, thinking nothing of themselves, these gallant youths have worked incessantly to rescue the injured from the wreckage of their homes, to bring solace to the suffering.

Many of them have lost their lives, others have been shockingly maimed, as machine-gun bullets are the only salute the blood-crazed raiders have for the Red Cross flag.

BUT STILL the Boy Scouts carry valiantly on, staunch to their vows of service.

Mention must also be made of their sister organisation, the Girl Guides, for these girls have responded bravely and without hesitation to the calls on them for assistance.

Despite the intensive air raids over Canton, more than 1,000 Chinese Boy Scouts and Girl Guides are remaining at their posts and continuing their heroic relief work.

A foreign observer paid high praise to them this week for the excellent discipline they have maintained and for the fine example they have set their elders.

But it is not in Canton alone that the Scouts and Guides have proved their worth. Actually there is an army of 500,000 of these youngsters helping in China's fight against Japanese aggression.

Although these under-age soldiers do not resist with guns, they are playing a most important part in withstanding the invaders.

Many of them are serving on the various fronts, not in the firing lines, but as messengers who can be relied on to get through despite the greatest difficulties.

OTHERS are engaged in anti-espionage work and have proved most successful in circumventing spies and traitors. A number of the Chinese Generals place great faith in the ability of these youths and have made special requests that their services be made available to them.

With their hearts burning with patriotism and fired with the ideals of their Movement,

PATRIOTISM, the Scouts and AND IDEALS Guides of China have been unceasing in their efforts to help their country in every way.

In addition to raising thousands of dollars for the war chest, they have paid special attention to cheering and comforting wounded soldiers and keeping the masses informed as to the latest developments in the hostilities.

In the past six months in Hankow they have distributed more than 100,000 handbills exhorting the populace to contribute to the defence funds. They have collected upward of 100,000 cotton padded garments and 5,000 bamboo beds for the injured in the various military hospitals at Hankow.

China's sacrifices have been terrific in the past 10 months but it is gratifying to know that in these days, when youths in totalitarian countries are being conscripted en masse into organisations purely for political purposes, the ideals of the Boy Scout Movement are being so ably upheld by China's sons and daughters.

The world pays tribute to their heroism.

HOTTEST DAY OF THE YEAR

This is also a record for June, the previous highest temperature recorded for this month being 91.5 (in 1896). The minimum temperature yesterday was 81 degrees. Humidity at 10 a.m. yesterday was 67 and at 4 p.m. 64.

BRITISH LETTER TO CANTON MAYOR

Japanese Attacks
Deplored

SYMPATHY, SUPPORT ASSURED

Canton, June 9.
Horror at Japanese aerial attacks on Canton civilians, and sympathy and support for the Chinese request that the British Government should take urgent and effective measures to check Japan's mass massacres, are expressed in a message addressed by a group of prominent leaders in London, including the Archbishop of York and Lord Cecil, to Mr. Tseng Yang-fu, Mayor of Canton.

The message reads as follows:—
London, June 8, 1938.
To the Mayor of Canton.

We, the undersigned, are shocked by the bombing and machine-gunning of Chinese civilians in Canton by Japanese aircraft. We assure you all our practical sympathy and support for the Chinese request that His Majesty's Government should take such urgent and effective measures as would restrain Japan from continuing the wholesale slaughter of innocent non-combatants.

Archbishop of York, A. D. Lindsay, Vice-Chancellor of Oxford Bishop of Bristol.

SWATOW AND THE REFUGEES

Swatow, June 9.
All refugees arriving here from Amoy are required to register and in some cases they have to furnish a guarantee before they are allowed to land. Conditions in Amoy are almost normal.

A close watch on spies is maintained here in view of the Japanese threat to harass Swatow. Miss Yoshiko Kawashima, the well known adventuress and agent, is reported to be active in South China, directing young women in espionage work. Her arrival in South China was first reported in the Sao Tang Pao, an army journal in Hankow.—(International)

I.L.O. CONFERENCE

CHINESE DELEGATE MAY WITHDRAW

Geneva, June 9.
Mr. Chu, the Chinese workers' delegate to the International Labour Office conference, sought to deliver a speech attacking Japan.

HOW HERR HITLER "MIGHT BE MADE MORE HUMAN"

If Herr Hitler possessed less personal correctness, and if he smoked and drank, he might be more human and less dangerous, said Commander Locker Lampson (Conservative) in the House of Commons, when asking leave to introduce the Jewish Citizenship Bill, extending Palestinian nationality to Jewish refugees.

He added that Herr Hitler had "gobbled up another victim, and brought 7,000,000 people under his iron heel. This had intensified the terrible problem of Jewry throughout the world."

Commander Locker Lampson explained that the Bill permitted potentially persecuted Jews to become Palestinians. A Jewish State with a population of millions would be a buffer against an enemy attempting to cut the oil line to the Suez Canal.

A vote on the Bill resulted in 144 both for and against, but the Speaker's casting vote went for the Bill, enabling it to be reconsidered.

COUNT CIANO'S LONDON TRIP

London, June 9.
It is learned from a reliable source that a definite date has now been fixed for the visit of Count Ciano, Italian Foreign Minister, to London.

During his stay in the British capital, Count Ciano will meet the Prime Minister, Mr. Chamberlain, the Foreign Secretary, Lord Halifax, and other members of the British Cabinet.

It is presumed that the Anglo-Italian Agreement will be in the foreground of the conversations.—(Transocean).

CHINESE MARCH ON NANKING

Kwangtch, June 9.
After a respite of some time, Chinese guerrillas are again on the march on Nanking.

Latest reports received here stated that their vanguards are now only several li from Tienwangssu, over 50 kilometres south-east of the former Chinese capital.

During an attack on the Japanese at Shanghai, northwest of Nanking, on June 7, the Chinese guerrillas inflicted heavy casualties on the enemy. They are now vigorously pressing northward from Nanking.

Chinese guerrillas are closing in on Haiyen and Sian-shih, on the north bank of Hangchow Bay. They have reached the suburbs of both cities.—(Central News).

NEW FLYING RECORD

Paris, June 9.
Captain Rossi the well-known French flier, captured three new international flying records yesterday.

Over a distance of 5,000 kilometres and with a 1,000 kilogram load, he averaged a speed of 401 kilometres, thereby improving the existing record of 325 kilometres over this distance.—(Transocean).

SUBMARINE EXPEDITION

The famous Polar explorer, Sir Hubert Wilkins, left Moscow on Wednesday, where he had been discussing the possibilities of receiving financial assistance for a submarine expedition to the North Pole, says Transocean.

CHINESE VANGUARD NEARS NANKING

Hankow, June 9.
The vanguard of the Chinese forces, said to be advancing northward towards Nanking, from Kwangtch, has reached the outskirts of Tienyangtze, about thirty miles south-east of Nanking, according to Chinese despatches.

The Chinese forces, with their base at Kwangtch, are said to have been ordered early this month to advance in two columns towards Nanking.

These forces are stated to have passed Nanking, about sixty-five miles south-east of Nanking, and Lanhsi on June 6 and after an engagement with Japanese troops the following day north-east of Nanking they are now said to be approaching Tienyangtze.

It is understood that the Chinese troops are heading for Mo-lingkan about ten miles south of Nanking.—(Reuter).

The president of the conference warned Mr. Chu that no political attacks were allowed and refused Mr. Chu the floor.

Mr. Chu threatens to withdraw from the conference.—(Reuter).

NAZIS DISBAND IN U.S.A.

PROTESTS ARE HEEDED

For the second time within a year, Chancellor Hitler has acceded to official protests by the United States Government against Nazi activities in America.

The German Ambassador called on the Secretary of State and informed him that the German Government had again warned its nationals against membership in the Amerika-Deutsche Volksbund or "any possible substitute organisations of that kind."

For nearly two years, disturbances have followed speeches by Fritz Kuhn, the Band leader, who reported to have 400,000 followers.

The German Government's order read:

"On account of numerous inquiries being received from German citizens living in the United States the German Government reiterates that German citizens must not belong to the Amerika-Deutsche Volksbund or to possible substitute organisations of that kind."

"German citizens who in ignorance of this standing order have become members of the Amerika-Deutsche Volksbund or the so-called Prospective Citizens' League must resign from these organisations at once."

MR. HULL'S STATEMENT
Earlier, the Secretary of State (Mr. Hull) had made the following statement:

"I desire to stress that all persons of foreign birth who acquire United States citizenship by naturalisation declare on oath in open court that they will support and defend the Constitution of the United States, and that they absolutely and entirely renounce and abjure all allegiance and fidelity to any foreign Prince, Potentate, State or Sovereignty and particularly by name to the Prince Potentate, State or Sovereignty of which they were before citizens, or subjects; that they will support and defend the Constitution and laws of the United States against all enemies, foreign and domestic, and bear true faith and allegiance to the same. It is thus clear that with their new allegiance, their undivided duty is the support of our Constitution, our laws and our flag."

The order to German nationals to keep out of politically active organisations in America was first published here in October, 1935. Disciples of Nazism in the Friends of the New Germany showed such a disposition to temporise with this order, however, that it was addressed to them in peremptory fashion two months later by direct communication from Hitler's right-hand.

"Now I've never taken a kick at the Board, but have always sided by their rules. I am willing to keep on doing so."

"Still they cannot force me to defend British titles while I am still a contender in the world series. That would be unreasonable."

Farr is flying to Paris and is taking with him his life-long adviser, Job Churchill, the Tony-pandy sadder.

Job told me he had been looking forward to an air-liner trip across the Channel for a couple of years. Before I left him, Tommy said:

"I shall follow the sun, but there is only one country for me—England or, rather, Britain."

Farr, I almost forgot to mention, tells me that his eyes are better than ever.

nian Rudolph Hess December 31, 1935, was set by Berlin as the dead-line for the resignation.

TOMMY FARR'S PLANS

Next Fight To Be In U.S.A.

In his West-End flat Tommy Farr—who appeared before the Board of Control stewards—told me that his next fight will take place in the United States—with more to follow, writes a London correspondent.

He will positively be at the rinkside when Joe Louis defends his world title against Max Schmeling at Yankee Stadium, New York, on June 22.

We had just said adieu to his American manager, Joe Gould, at Waterloo.

Farr declares that he is quite prepared to defend his British and Empire titles. "But more important," he says, "is my chance of having another crack to win the world heavy weight championship."

"WHO IS THERE?"
"Uncle Mike Jacobs only considers four fighters," he went on. "Louis, Schmeling, Max Baer and myself. He is a wise fellow is Mike. He is coming to England at the end of July."

"Louis, if he retains his championship crown, is also definitely making the trip—not for fights—but to have a look at London and Paris. Should Louis lose, then he is almost sure to retire."

"There are plenty of fights for me in the States. I collected plenty of dollars refereeing fights in California; plenty more snarling exhibition bouts."

"Who is there for me to meet over here? The winner of the Phillips-Poore eliminator, Walter Neusel, Len Harvey and Jack Doyle. The one who would draw most money is Doyle. That is generally agreed."

AN AIR TRIP
Now I've never taken a kick at the Board, but have always sided by their rules. I am willing to keep on doing so.

"Still they cannot force me to defend British titles while I am still a contender in the world series. That would be unreasonable."

Farr is flying to Paris and is taking with him his life-long adviser, Job Churchill, the Tony-pandy sadder.

BRITAIN MAY CALL COUNTERACT INSURGENT AIR ATTACKS

Same Measures To Be Applied To Air Pirates

RENEWED BOMBING OF SHIPPING

London, June 9. Suggestions that the British Government is considering calling a new Nyon conference to discuss plans for an air patrol of Spain, in an attempt to check deliberate attacks on neutral shipping, are mooted in a number of morning newspapers.

The Daily Mail says that the patrol would observe and report all such attacks. Britain and France would supply a number of planes for this purpose and Italy and other interested powers would be invited to do the same.

The Daily Mail adds that the British Government has examined several proposals for reprisals against General Franco, but considers that the summoning of a conference is the most suitable preliminary step.

The Times, referring to the bombing of British ships, says that the incidents have brought Europe back to pre-Nyon days, and the Nyon methods are again required to counteract the situation.

The News-Chronicle says that experts at Whitehall have not yet been able to recommend any method for protecting British property and, at the same time, maintaining the fiction of non-intervention in Spanish affairs.

The most obvious step would be to adopt with regard to the air pirates the policy adopted after the Nyon Conference against submarine pirates.

"The objection to such a step is that it might be considered an act of intervention, though it is felt by an increasing number of diplomats in London that the British Government is able to claim that it is acting in self-defence," adds the paper.

The Daily Telegraph states that several courses none of which are wholly free from disadvantages are open to the Government.

Madrid, June 9. An insurgent air raid yesterday on the port of Gandia caused damage to a British dredger in harbour and destroyed a number of houses.

DETERMINED STAND BY CHINESE AT CHUNGMOU

Fengchiu Recaptured

Heavy Japanese Casualties Reported In North Shansi

Chengchow, June 9. Fierce fighting continues to rage around Chungmow, west of Kaifeng, where the Chinese troops are making a determined stand. Japanese troops have been repulsed by the Chinese during the last two days. The situation on the afternoon of June 7 was critical for the Chinese when a Japanese tank unit approached the city, but was later relieved by the strong counter-attacks of the Chinese.

A bitter encounter took place at Shihyuan, north of Chihhsien yesterday. After several hours' fighting, between 400 and 500 Japanese were routed and fled to Chihhsien. The Chinese closed in on Chihhsien and are now besieging the city.

Intense fighting is also in progress at Minchuan, west of Lanfeng, where a strong Chinese force is still holding out.

The Japanese column which recently captured Luyl has not made any headway in the face of stiff Chinese resistance. Fighting is still going on between Luyl and Hwaiyang, about 50 kilometres west. (Central News).

CHINESE RECAPTURE

Chengchow, June 9. The rear of the Japanese at Kaifeng is menaced by the Chinese recapture of Fengchiu, about 18 miles north of Kaifeng, which has been confirmed by military reports.

It is stated that Chinese forces launched an attack on the city on the night of June 6. About 3 a.m. the next day the Chinese attackers entered the city by scaling the wall and engaged the enemy in bloody street combats. Unable to resist the Chinese

EXCITEMENT IN — ARAB — CIRCLES GROWS

Turkish Troops May March Into The Sanjak

Antioch, June 9. Excitement in Arab circles here and in the Sanjak of Alexandretta has been greatly increased by reports of the concentration of Turkish troops along the railways line to Alexandretta. These circles reckon with the possibility of the Turks marching into the Sanjak any day. It is expected that the French mandator authorities will in that event immediately withdraw French troops in order to avoid any clashes.

It is pointed out that such a decision would have the effect of leaving the non-Turkish elements to their fate. Fear for their personal safety is widespread among the Arabs and Armenians whose exodus from Sanjak continues.

The outbreak of disorders in Antioch is feared on Thursday when inscription of elections on the various registers is resumed. It is announced that the Mandates Commission of the League of Nations has sent a protest to the Commander of the French troops in the Sanjak. Major Collet, against the measures taken by him in violation of the rights of the non-Turkish population. (Transocean).

POPULACE IN SUSPENSE

Canton, June 9. An unknown number of Japanese planes came over at 8 p.m. and are now circling the city. Hitherto only one bomb was dropped and it is thought that the object of the raiders is now merely to keep the populace in suspense. (Reuter).

WONGSHA STATION AGAIN BOMBED

Canton, June 9. Ruthless bombing of Canton city was resumed by forty-seven Japanese planes in two raids early this morning.

The Wongsha station, principal target of several previous raids, was again bombed by the Japanese fliers. Two missiles which landed in the vicinity of the station caused the death and wounding of more than a dozen persons and the demolition of several houses. (Central News).

LAST ELECTIONS IN CZECHOSLOVAKIA

Prague, June 9. Next Sunday will be the third and last day of the municipal elections in Czechoslovakia with 8,170 communities having to vote. Out of these, 1,188 have German majority. Since candidates will be returned unopposed in more than 4,000 communities, the actual polling will take place only in the remaining 4,000.

The elections will be held in a number of the bigger towns of the Sudeten German area like Reichenberg, Tepitz, Trautenau and Leitertitz. Among the towns with mixed population which have to vote are Pressburg and Igla. (Transocean).

BATTLES IN PROGRESS AT MANY POINTS IN SHANSI

JAPANESE INFANTRY DETACHMENT WAYLAIED BY GUERRILLAS

Kianghsien, Shansi, June 9. Summarising the war situation at many fronts, military communiques released here today state that fighting continued to rage unabated in many centres in north, central and south Shansi. Up to the north just inside the Great Wall near the Shensi border, a strong force of Japanese troops, numbering more than 1,000, made a determined bid for Pienkwan in several fierce assaults during the last few days but was finally repulsed by the defenders with heavy losses. The invaders have now retreated towards Lao-ying.

Another detachment of 600 Japanese infantry, with a number of horses and mules, advancing westward from Paohsi, was waylaid by Chinese guerrillas in the vicinity of Chihpao. It is claimed 200 of the invaders were killed and 100 rifles seized.

In the vicinity of Sanying, another small town in north Shansi, Chinese guerrillas had a thrilling encounter with a company of Japanese troops on June 4. After several hours' severe fighting, the invaders were routed with more than 100 casualties, including the commander of the company, who was injured.

Near Linshih, in central Shansi, on the Fen River, 500 Japanese who tried to damage the Tatung-Puchow railway were repulsed by the Chinese on the night of June 5. More than 100 Japanese were killed in the encounter.

In south Shansi, fighting in the vicinity of Howma continued with increased ferocity yesterday and today at a number of points, including Changwangtsun, Tiele, and Yuanstun.

To the west of Howma, the Japanese garrison force at Sinkiang made several abortive attempts to break through the Chinese cordon outside the walled city but were repeatedly driven back by the Chinese. Part of the Japanese force which slipped through the Chinese ring by the east gate was stopped when crossing the Fen River.

Further to the south at Wenhsia and Yuncheng, small groups of Japanese repeatedly tried to break through the Chinese siege which is gradually being tightened. They were driven back with heavy losses. (Central News).

ABORTIVE LANDING

Tsingyang, June 9. Under a protective barrage laid by over 13 warships, Japanese marines attempted to land at Hsialingchow, more than 10 kilometres above Tatung on the Yangtse River, yesterday.

BRITISH ORDER FOR PLANES FROM AMERICA

Price Reported To Be £3,400,000

London, June 9. The Daily Express reports that the British Government has placed an order for 200 Lockheed passenger planes in the United States.

The paper points out that Lockheed planes, which have accommodation for 12 passengers, a speed of 335 kilometres per hour and a cruising radius of 1,600 kilometres, can easily be converted into fighting planes. The purchase price for the 200 planes is £3,400,000, according to the Daily Express. (Transocean).

DEFENCE OF CAIRO

Cairo, June 9. The purchase of 36 military planes within the next two years has been decided by the National Defence Committee. (Transocean).

FRENCH CRUISERS AT BEIRUTH

Beirut, June 9. A squadron of seven French cruisers and six destroyers, commanded by Vice-Admiral Abrial, arrived here today for a eight-days visit. The warships were officially welcomed by the French High Commissioner as well as by representatives of the Lebanese Government.

After attending the inauguration of the new port of Beirut, units of the Mediterranean fleet will take part in joint manoeuvres with troops and air force of the mandated territory. The theme of the manoeuvres will be the defence of the Lebanese coast. (Transocean).

1,000 JAPANESE SLAIN

Sian, June 9. The Japanese paid a toll of about 1,000 when they invaded Pienkwan on the Yellow River in northwest Shansi on June 5.

Four thousand Japanese supported by over 30 field pieces and assisted by two divisions of "Manchukuo" irregulars launched a fierce onslaught on the city from three directions. Strong Chinese troops engaged them north and east of the city. After a night-long battle, the Japanese were defeated with heavy losses.

Seeking redress, the Japanese are renewing their attack. (Central News).

TURKEY SPENDS — £6,000,000 — ON ARMAMENTS

Dardanelles Fortifications To Be Strengthened

Ankara, June 9. Information regarding the manner in which the credit of £16,000,000 recently granted to Turkey in London will be appropriated, is published by the paper Ulus, which contains close relations with Turkish Government quarters.

According to the paper—whose information is evidently obtained from a reliable source—£10,000,000 will be devoted to various public enterprises, such as the development of forts, mines, communications and industrial undertakings.

The remaining £6,000,000 will, under the terms of the agreement reached in London, be exclusively for armaments. In this connection the paper expresses the opinion that England desires to establish a new and secure position for herself in the Eastern Mediterranean and the Straits.

The paper affirms that England is particularly interested in the strengthening of fortifications on the Dardanelles and that all new shore batteries there will be supplied by British firms.

The paper goes on to say that England likewise is interested in the development of both military and civil aviation in Turkey and that there is reason to believe that part of the money appropriated for Turkish rearmament will be utilised for that purpose while another part will be spent on the Turkish Navy, especially on the construction of submarines.

So far as the Turkish Government's naval plans are known, the first part of its programme will consist of building of new small units and the modernising of existing ones while the building of new battle-cruisers and large destroyers will be provided for in the second part. (Transocean).

JAPANESE WARSHIPS OFF KWANGTUNG COAST BELIEVED 22

Canton, June 9. There are between 18 to 22 Japanese warships along the 250-mile Kwangtung coast. At Ta Hao, on the east coast, what is believed to be either an aircraft carrier or a cruiser was sighted together with two destroyers.

Other warships are located at Wan Shan Island, 50 miles south-west of Hong Kong, and off Changshan district. (International).

ITALIAN PLANES PLAYING IMPORTANT ROLE IN OFFENSIVE ON VALENCIA

Madrid, June 9. According to the war correspondent of the Corriere della Sera on the Spanish front, Italian planes are playing an important role in the present offensive against Valencia. At 7 p.m. on Wednesday, legions commanded by General Valino had approached to within seven kilometres of their objective, Castellon de la Plana, advancing from Chodes, Adaneta Puerto Mingalvo simultaneously.

Italian bombing squadrons carried out two large-scale attacks on Loyalist forces which are defending the road to Lucena, Del Cid. Fifty Loyalist pursuit planes of Soviet Russian origin attacked the Italian bombers. A squadron of Italian pursuit planes, however, engaged the Loyalist planes and a violent and prolonged battle ensued in the course of which eleven Loyalist planes were shot down in flames. The Italian planes returned to their base. (Transocean).

SENSATIONAL KIDNAPPING PLOT

When he was charged with the possession of firearms with intent to endanger life, Thornton replied, "I did not endanger life. The things were not loaded."

Thornton and Major Ramsden met at 5.30 p.m. on May 24 when Thornton was completely disguised and Major Ramsden was wearing a chauffeur's uniform and driving a car with faked number plates and licence.

Major Ramsden drove near the Morris factor and then telephoned for instructions while Thornton remained in the car.

POLICE ON SCENE

The Chief Constable of the Oxford City and a party of police appeared on the scene and took Thornton into the factory where he was searched and found to be in possession of an automatic.

Albert Carter gave evidence regarding Thornton hiring a yacht called the Pierette at West Marsea. The proceedings were suspended for a few moments while a constable left the Court and brought back a man whom the witness identified as Thornton's companion. The man who left immediately afterwards was stated in Court to be Major Ramsden.

FINAL VICTORY MUST LIE WITH CHINA

"The entire people, as well as the rank and file of the Chinese Army, are most firmly convinced that the final victory of the war will be ours," the Generalissimo declared.

PEOPLE'S SUPPORT

The result of the eleven months' war, the Generalissimo declared, has entrenched not only the people's determination but also their confidence. Furthermore, never before have the Chinese people been more united, in body and spirit, in the history of the nation. Sectarianism has disappeared completely, and the Kuomintang and the National Government enjoy the undivided support and confidence of the people, with perhaps the exception of a shady group of traitors and puppets.

In calculating the military strength of China, the Generalissimo declared Japan has made a gross mistake which they can never rectify. She thought China would be weakened every day as the war dragged on, which she believed could never last more than three months. That she had been wrong is now patent to the entire world.

ODDS AGAINST ENEMY

With the war now penetrating deeper into the interior of China, Generalissimo Chiang believed the odds are even more sharply tilted against the enemy. The Chinese Army, he said, will not attach undue importance to the loss of a city or an area, but will choose to its own advantage fields of operation where the strength of the enemy may best and most effectively be attenuated.

BRADMAN BOOED BY OVAL CROWD

Excitement In The Pavilion And Its Surrounds

There was a terrible hullabaloo at the Oval because the Australian captain did not make Surrey follow their innings. Such excitement was caused in the Pavilion and its surrounds that an official statement had to be issued, writes a London correspondent.

It comes to a pretty pass when a captain has to make public apology. D. Bradman is captain-appointed of his team; his duty is to conserve the energy of the team, and any action he may see fit to take is no business of any other person in the world. So far as one can make out his bowlers—and he has a rather slender resource—are at the moment physically defective. In that case he was right to spare them the labour of bowling again against such a batting side as Surrey.

As it was, the day's cricket was dull and had no meaning whatsoever. Australia declared their innings closed after Barnett and Badcock had made runs at their leisure—very much at their leisure—leaving themselves only an hour and a quarter in which to get Surrey out.

MOMENT OF SHAME

I never believed that I would hear anything so distressing, but when the Australian team took the field their captain was "booed" all the way out. A possible mistake in tactics is no excuse for gross insult to the greatest cricketer of the age. It was a moment of shame for the Oval.

Surrey were soon out in the morning, and before midday Gower and Watts were pounding again at the Australian batsmen. B. A. Barnett and C. L. Badcock went in first, but their pleasant exhibition was interrupted after a quarter of an hour by rain; the covers came out and the policemen put on their raincoats. They were soon out again, and no sooner out than the score had been taken from 21 to 50, with Barnett hitting the ball cheerfully away to leg.

FORMAL DECLARATION

The Surrey captain tried to round the wicket, always a possible solution of his bowling troubles, but this time the batsmen were inexorable. Barnett cut Watts ferociously; Badcock, although perhaps a little hurried in playing his strokes, kept pace with his partner. Barnett it was who reached his century but of 192 on the board with a lovely off-drive, and it was Badcock soon afterwards who was first out, caught at short slip.

Garland-Wells had been given a generous spell of bowling from both sides, and Gregory, when his turn came, managed to make the ball spin, abruptly, and he had the reward of Chipperfield's wicket, never an easy one to take. By that time the damage had been done, Bradman had not come in himself, and the declaration, when it did arrive, was purely formal. No one else needed any batting practice.

MERRIER MOMENTS

Surrey, when they went in, ought to have been more than the evening away, not very pleasantly or happily, for Gregory, who was hit on the head by a ball from Watkins, who had started the bowling from the Pavilion end, with first O'Reilly and then White at other and O'Reilly came on again after a rest of a few minutes, and whenever he is bowling there is interest awakened even if the match is dead.

Ward bowled his leg-breaks as accurately as usual, but the left-handed Fishlock placed his bat straight against the spin, and once with a fierce stroke, nearly knocked O'Reilly's head from off his shoulders. Twice in one over he drove the ball to the long-off boundary, and in the next pulled not immediately short balls from Ward to leg. Even better was a stroke when he lay back and hit the ball hard past cover-point, a stroke he followed with a 6 over long-on's head and another 4 past mid-wicket. He had then scored 70 out of 80 runs, and had made 93 out of 104 when he was out to a splendidly judged catch at long-off. Fishlock scored his last 43 runs in 12 minutes. His score included two 6's and twelve 4's.

STATEMENT BY MR. JEANES
Mr. W. H. Jeanes, the Australian manager, stated at the Oval that several of the Australian players are suffering from early season soreness and stiffness.

Neither McCormick nor Fleetwood-Smith is quite fit. In Bradman's view it would have been unwise to make Surrey follow on. It would have meant O'Reilly and Ward bowling for the best part of the day, and with the first Test Match only just over a fortnight ahead he had to pay attention to the need to keep his players as fit as possible.

WOMEN'S LAWN TENNIS

French Tournament

Paris, June 8.
In the women's quarter-finals of the French Lawn Tennis Championships, Miss Couquerque of the Netherlands defeated Miss Goldschmidt of France by 6-2, 8-1; Madame Landry of France beat Madame Henrotin of France 6-2, 8-2; Madame Hall beat Miss Pannetier of France by 2-6, 6-4, 6-3; Madame Mathieu of France beat Miss Dorothy Stevenson of Australia by 6-4, 6-0.

Miss Couquerque now meets Madame Landry, and Madame Hall meets Madame Mathieu in the semi-finals.

In the quarter-finals of the men's singles, Puncce of Yugoslavia defeated Cejnar of Czechoslovakia by 3-6, 3-6, 6-2, 6-3, and Roderick Menzel of Czechoslovakia beat Mitic of Yugoslavia by 6-0, 6-0, 6-1. (Reuter).

NEW MIDDLESEX PLAYER

Brown (S. M.) made his first appearance in County cricket for Middlesex against Warwickshire at Lord's recently. He had an average of 50.44 in ten innings for the second eleven last season.

New Bowler Humbles Tourists

Nevell, a young right-arm medium-fast bowler in his first season in county cricket, humbled the mighty Australians at Lord's recently.

Taking the wickets of Bradman, Badcock, and McCabe at little cost, he helped Middlesex to dismiss the tourists for 132, their lowest total against a county side since 1930.

In August of that year Gloucestershire tied after dismissing the touring team for 157 and 117, and that is the nearest a county eleven has been to beating the Australians since the war.

Middlesex's spin bowlers worried the Australians, but threw up too many loose balls.

THE OLYMPIC GAMES

Britain Unlikely To Go To Tokyo

A decision is likely to be reached in the near future whether the Olympic Games are ever likely to be held again. As at present arranged, invitations to the Olympic Associations of more than fifty countries will be issued shortly, asking that teams shall be entered for the Games scheduled to take place in the Japanese capital from September 21 to October 6, 1940.

The British channel for acceptance or refusal is the British Olympic Association, on which the various British governing bodies of sport are represented. All the governing bodies have their say, but it would be idle to deny that the British Amateur Athletic Board has not got a dominant influence.

The backbone of an Olympic meeting is the athletics. The attitude of the British Amateur Athletic Board will, therefore, be of paramount importance when the British Olympic Association comes to consider the impending Japanese invitation.

Ultimately, of course, the decision depends upon the psychological reaction of the British amateur sporting public towards the idea of Olympic Games in Tokyo—and, indeed, anywhere else. The B.O.A. is not, therefore, likely to move without calling a general meeting, as was done during the "broken time" crisis.

Without Britain, the Dominions, and the United States, an Olympic meeting would be meaningless. And if Tokyo should be abandoned and the four-year sequence of Olympic Games be broken in peace time, it is extremely unlikely that the Olympic movement would ever again become endowed with enough enthusiasm of a common nature to lead to a revival.

BOT SET IN

No more is it likely that an alternative meeting-place could be agreed upon in the event of Tokyo being rejected. As was seen at the meeting of the Federation Internationale de Ski in Finland, when the F.I.S. failed to define an amateur to the satisfaction of its members, the Japanese, Germans, and Italians hang together in conferences relating to sport as well as the more obvious forms of politics. Skiing being as integral a part of the Olympic Winter Games as athletics are of the Games in the summer, the Japanese winter Olympics are already as good as dead.

In fact, the time has now come when it is to be decided whether the Olympic Games shall continue. The British amateur sporting public and officials must, therefore, make up their minds what course this country should take in solving the crisis. Britain has lent her prestige to the Olympic movement from the beginning and cannot escape her responsibility now. And it is a big responsibility.

WORLD OPINION

The first doubts as to the wisdom of holding the Olympic Games in Tokyo were expressed in Berlin in August, 1936, after the International Olympic Committee had invited Japan to organise the meeting in 1940, and the Japanese had accepted. It was known that the supreme Japanese military authorities had said they would rather spend £2,000,000 on a new battleship than on any sports meeting.

It was also feared that the distance from Japan, apart from the considerations of climate and accommodation, might prove an overwhelmingly expensive obstacle to many of the smaller nations sending representative teams. Japan's representative, Count Soyeshima, was able to disarm opposition, and Japan obtained the Games without practically the slightest objection from a single member of the International Olympic Committee.

Only with the outbreak of the Sino-Japanese hostilities in July, 1937, and the formation of the Berlin-Rome-Tokyo axis, in November, did disapproval of holding the next Olympic Games in Tokyo become wide-spread. With the increasingly ruthless penetration of China by the Japanese armed forces this disapproval has

G. Illingworth Breaks Course Record At Woking

G. Illingworth, a former Cambridge captain, broke the Woking course record by one stroke, with a round of 89, in the qualifying rounds of the Surrey Amateur Championship.

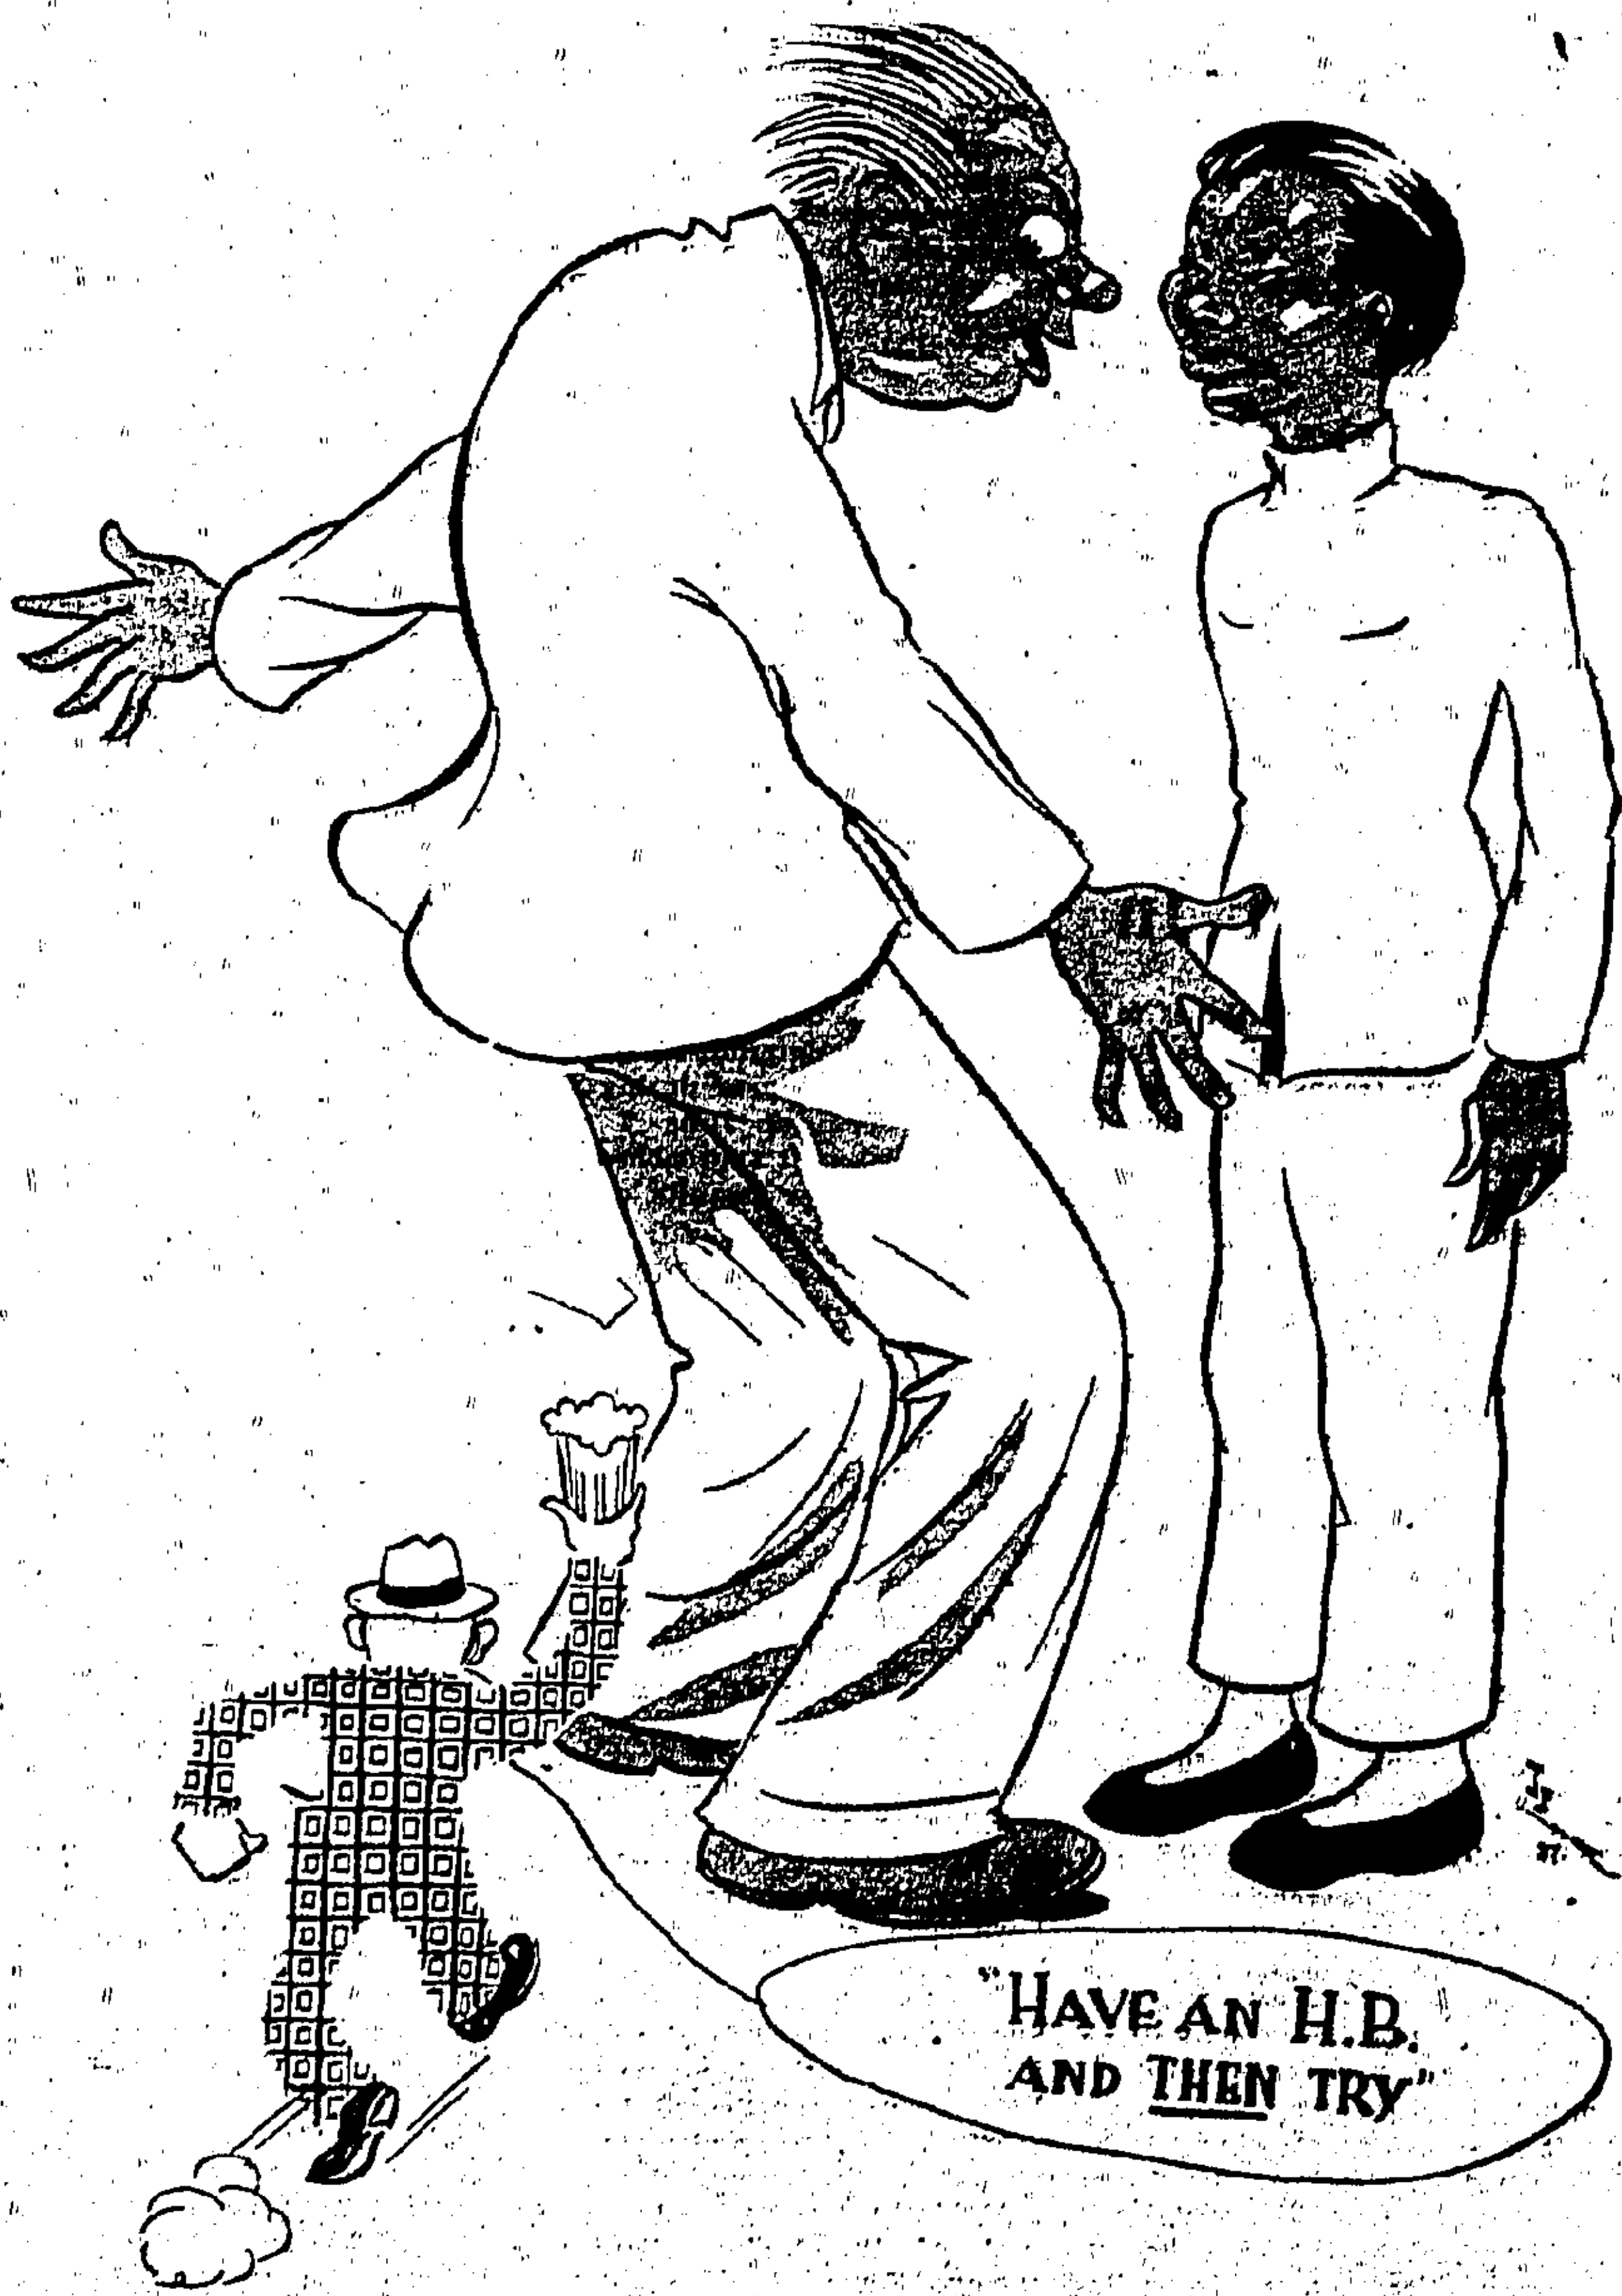

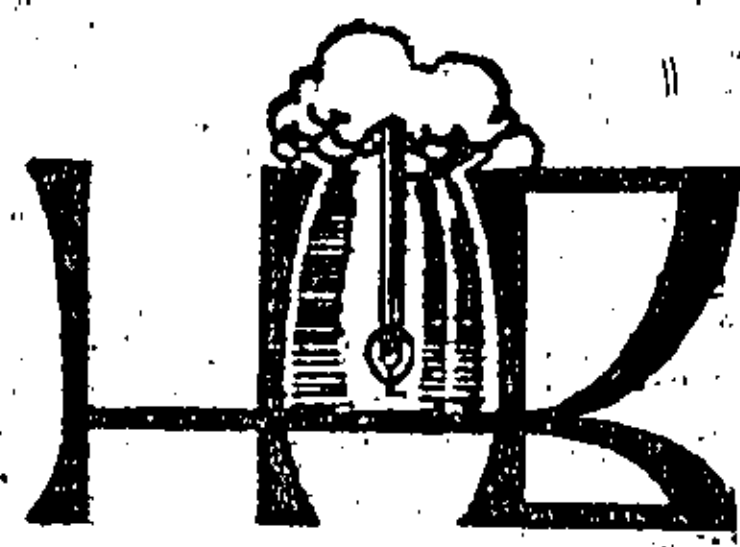

Previously, Duncan Anderson (St. George's Hill) had equalled the record and a second round of 78 gave him the best total of 146, but for business reasons he will be unable to play in the match-play stages.

NEW ZEALANDERS

LOST £1,932

The New Zealanders lost £1,932 on the tour in England last year. It was announced recently. They made an effort to recoup themselves by playing matches against the States in Australia on the way home, but "bad weather" caused these matches to be failures financially, only half the expenses being recovered.

L.C.C. SCHOOLS
BAN ON SCOOTERS
AND SKATES

Cycles Must Have
"S" Sign

A number of proposals for reducing accidents among children were approved by London Education Committee recently. These included:

Control of the use of bicycles; A veto on fairy cycles, scooters and roller skates; and

The discouragement of playing ball games, tops and marbles in the streets.

Children are also to receive training in the development of road sense. Traffic monitors who will watch children coming to and leaving school are to be introduced as an experiment for one year.

Mr. F. S. Henwood said the suggestions were "grandmotherly, and tied up in red tape."

It was proposed, he continued, that children should not be allowed to bring cycles to school unless they were enrolled in a school cycle club, which had been licensed, and carried a letter "S" on their machines. They must also have passed an examination in knowledge of the Highway Code and in ability to cycle safely.

SAFETY IN RAIDS

Mr. T. H. Jones, vice-chairman of the committee, said that "grandmotherly" or not, if the changes reduced accidents they would be justified.

More than 300 head teachers had been communicated with on the question and some of their suggestions were embodied in the recommendations.

Plans for air raid precautions in London's schools were also approved for submission to the L.C.C. The proposals include the closing of all council schools when warning of an air raid is given.

Mrs. Barbara Drake said that Sir Philip Game, Metropolitan Police Commissioner, had been notified of the proposals, and had stated that there was nothing in them to embarrass the police.

"A WEALTH of HEALTH"

"I mean to express with all my heart that your Kalzana has given wonderful results in my little girl, who was ailing for some time."

writes a grateful mother.

If your Child is ailing then give it Kalzana

If any of your children are delicate and irritable, suffer from delayed teething and weak bones, it is more than probable that a lack of minerals is the cause of the trouble.

Give your children Kalzana tablets or powder for a few weeks and you will soon see the difference in their health. It strengthens the cells of blood, body and nerves, increases the power of resistance and makes bones strong, and teeth white and healthy.

Give Kalzana to the grown-up members of your family, and they, too, will enjoy continual good health.

Kalzana

THE MINERAL FOOD FOR BETTER HEALTH

Kalzana Tablets are sold in bottles of 75 and 450. Kalzana is the most economical of all calcium preparations.

STERN TESTS FOR ENGLISH TEAMS

Strong Argentine And U.S. Challenge

INNOVATIONS FOR NEW SEASON

Polo players and club managers are regarding the immediate prospects of the season with a certain amount of apprehension. The grounds are as hard as Indian grounds; the young grass is not coming up and owners of ponies are haunted by gloomy fears regarding felloes, writes a Home correspondent.

However, a couple of inches of rain will put that right; and if we get them then, and if reasonable weather follows, we should be assured of an excellent season. We shall have with us two very strong contingents from America and the Argentine, who will put our home players to an almost interminable test.

And the innovation of acquiring a year in advance the nucleus of a stable to go to America in quest of the Westchester Cup will be studied with great interest.

In the last international series we were at a certain disadvantage in the matter of ponies, not that there was anything wrong with the ponies themselves, but because the English captain had to devote much of his attention in the trial games to the selection of mounts and their allotment to individuals, while the Americans, having done this beforehand, could concentrate on the form and combination of the players.

NINETEEN PONIES CHOSEN

The innovation will minimise this disadvantage next year. Up to now 19 ponies have been acquired, seven being Argentinian, seven Australian and five English. These will be allotted to various players by the Hurlingham Selection Committee, who will decide on this season's form which of them are up to the international standard, and to which player and what position in this game each of them is best suited.

At the end of the season their number will be made up to about 25. These will again be thoroughly tested next season, and the balance required for a stable of 40 to go to America will be made up by borrowing from private owners. Hurlingham must be congratulated on the forethought and thoroughness they have shown in dealing with this matter.

No trial matches will be played this year; and, though they would have been interesting to watch, no fault can be found with this decision. The form of one season is not a safe guide to that of the next, and it is always possible that a new star may arise in India during the intervening cold weather.

OPEN TOURNAMENT SIDES

The Open Cup tournaments this year should be of a standard high enough to afford a preliminary test of our leading players. The Open Cup teams and their aggregate handicaps are:—

Rangers (28).—C. B. Wrightsman, Aidan Roark, C. Smith, E. H. Tyrrell Martin.
Jaguars (27).—Hon. W. K. Rous, S. Sanford, G. Balding, Capt. H. P. Guinness.

Knives (27).—R. Skene, Captain W. F. Butler, Capt. C. T. I. Roark, Major J. P. Harrison.
Gauchos (24).—R. Loewenstein, H. H. Hughes, R. Kavanagh, R. Stantamarina.

El Geziro (20).—Capt. E. J. Fowler, C. V. Miller, Capt. H. C. Elton, G. W. Lowther.
Cowdray (19).—Lord Cowdray, J. Lakin, Capt. P. W. Dollar, Capt. P. B. Sanger.

Somerley House (19).—Col. Sir H. Wernher, Capt. D. J. C. Miller, A. M. Horsburgh Porter, Capt. R. A. Critchley.

Adscende (17).—Hon. M. R. Samuel, J. P. Robinson, Capt. H. G. Morrison, Lord Louis Mountbatten. There should be some great games among the first four of these teams. The Rangers have two most brilliant backs, an ex-international No. 2 and a keen and pushing No. 1. The Jaguars have an international back pair, of whom Balding's handicap has been raised to 10; and if Rous continues the improvement which he made last year they are likely winners against any side.

The Knives will rely on the brilliance of Capt. Roark, now rated at 9 goals, and of Skene whose No. 1 play in last year's Champion Cup final is still talked of, backed by the soundness and experience of the veteran Harrison. No one will be safe, however, in relying on the handicap to back any of these teams against the Gauchos.

TROOPS "ATTACKED" AT REVIEW

Apart from the heat, a source of great discomfort to the troops participating in the King's Birthday Review at Happy Valley yesterday were ants and other creeping insects whose "attacks" made standing to attention an obvious agony for the men.

Stoically, however, the units remained rigidly at attention; but on numerous occasions, as soon as they could stand easy, they began terrific "counter-attacks" with bare palms and handkerchiefs!

HOME CRICKET LUNCH SCORES

Derby 151 and 34 for 2 v. Sussex 382.
Surrey 185 for 4 v. Warwick 34 for 7.

PREPARATIONS FOR 50,000 REFUGEES

with relatives, leaving their property vacant for the use of refugees.

The authorities could make no official arrangements for the relief of destitute refugees because of demands on funds for war purposes. The richer inhabitants of Chungking, however, will be asked to contribute to the fund for use of refugees.

Anti-epidemic precautions to prevent the spread of disease are being handled energetically by doctors and the Board of Health. It is hoped that there will be no outbreak of disease in the summer.—(Reuter).

ARTILLERY DUEL

Luan, June 9.
Heavy artillery duel across the Hwai River is raging between Japanese forces at Chengyangkwan and the Chinese forces on the opposite bank.

An attempt yesterday by Japanese troops to cross the river was frustrated on the western bank.—(Central News).

ARGENTINIANS' STRENGTH

Argentinian form is better than ours, as was shown at the last Olympic Games; they have in Kavanagh and Hughes players of international class, and they are likely to be the best-mounted side in the country. The entry of El Geziro is a most welcome one. They are a team of serving soldiers stationed in Egypt, two of whom have inter-regimental victories to their credit.

They may not win against the top liners, and they will be out-pointed in most of their matches, but they will have improved their game greatly by the end of the season. We ought to see more sides like this in London.

Soldier players concentrate too much on inter-regimental polo. If they would take a losing and learning chance in Open Cup polo, we should have more promising recruits for our international sides.

Army polo has not so far suffered much from mechanisation. This year's inter-regimental numbers 14 The only notable absentees being the Gunners. The holders, the 10th Hussars, will start favourites.

WOMEN'S CHAMPIONSHIP
Women are asserting themselves in polo as in other games. This year they are holding a championship tournament, which will be played at Hurlingham at the end of July. It will doubtless provide an agreeable change from the sterner business of the masculine game.

The general public will welcome two improvements which have been made for their benefit at Hurlingham. One is that the team room accommodation has been considerably extended. The other is that loud speakers have been installed on the public side of the ground, from which an expert commentator will give, during each interval, a summary of the points deserving notice during the preceding period of play.

WOMAN'S LETTER OF 1399

"Oldest In English"

What is said to be the oldest extant letter written in English by a woman is reproduced in an article entitled "Records of an English Parish," by the Ven. G. H. Cameron, Archdeacon Emeritus of Johannesburg, and Vicar of Furneux Pelham, Herts, which appears in the Church Assembly News.

The letter was written in 1399 by his wife to Sir John Pelham, Constable of Pevensey Castle, while he was at Pontefract fighting for the Lancastrians. Correspondence before them was conducted in French. In the course of the letter, which is addressed, "To my Trew Lorde," it is stated:

"My dere Lorde, I recomende me to your hie Lordshipp wyth hert and body, and all my pore myght, and wyth all this I think zow, as my dere Lorde, derest and best vloyed of all erthlyche Lordes; I say for me, and thanke yow, my dere Lorde, wyth all this [things?] that, I say before, off your comfortable letre that ze send me on Mary Magdaleyn day: flor by my trowth I was never so gladd as when I herd by your letre that ze warr stronge ynogh, wyth the grace off God, 'or to kepe you fro the malice of your ennemis."

WASHINGTON RECORD
The article also refers to records in the parish of Furneux Pelham, associated with the families of President Washington and President Coolidge. The reference to Washington reads:

Adam Washington, a member of the President's family and bearing the same arms, was in the seventeenth century the owner of Beaches, one of the Brent Pelham manors, which was on his instructions sold by his executors to provide portions for his daughters. The Furneux Pelham registers include the following entry of the marriage of one of them:—"15th July, 1673. Mr. John Corneliuss and Mrs. Jane Washington."

It was customary up to about a hundred years ago to allude to single women as "Mrs." The Manchester Guardian explains.

SPECIAL TRAIN FOR RATINGS

Hankow, June 9.
A specially be-flagged train containing a coach-load of British sailors left here for Canton yesterday. Another train also carrying sailors for Canton will leave today. The sailors are those who were relieved by the Naval party which recently arrived here from Canton with details to be drafted to British gunboats operating on the Yangtze.

Several foreigners, chiefly women, took the opportunity offered and left on yesterday's train and others are believed to be leaving today.—(Reuter).

DOCTOR DIES IN SAVING PATIENT

Lord Horder's Vain Fight For His Life

After a six weeks' fight against blood-poisoning, contracted while treating a patient whose life he saved, Dr. Harry Stark, of Stoke Newington, N., died recently.

Dr. Stark, who was 35, had been treated in the Royal Northern Hospital, Holloway-road, N. Lord Horder made a personal diagnosis and directed the treatment. The patient was given several blood transfusions and serum injections.

His wife maintained a day and night vigil at his bedside and was with him when he died.

Among constant inquirers during his illness were many of his patients in the Stoke Newington district. He was devoted to his work, and the people among whom his practice lay regarded him as a friend.

A group of working-class women whom he tended in their hours of motherhood gathered outside the hospital weeping when the news of his death spread.

Dr. Stark was formerly house surgeon and resident medical officer at the Royal Waterloo Hospital.
